1. The Vision

Cristal ball, tell me !
Tell me how the future will be
Will the Tyranny fall ?
Tell me ...

What ??? A foolish sorcerer ?
centuries of darkness... and then a young Man ?
Avaland in ruins and built again ?
Dragons ? A witch and an alchemist ?
A civil war, and a world of Magic and Machines ?
The kingdom of the Crows and ... oh no...
The great Annihilation !

By the Trinity and the Seven Magics !
No one will trust me...
No ! we can't go this way...
LIES !

2. Crimson Tyranny

Crimson land of the dead
We've never known such a decay
Tyranny is our daily life
We've never seen a ray of sun

Crimson ! Tyranny !
Crimson ! Tyranny !

Beware the deadly crows
The disease and misery
Our sky is as dark
Even the dragons won't fly

I reign on this world
The black bird of these woods
I hold in my claws
My realm and my people
A powerful king
A master of the night
No one defeats me
I am a demigod

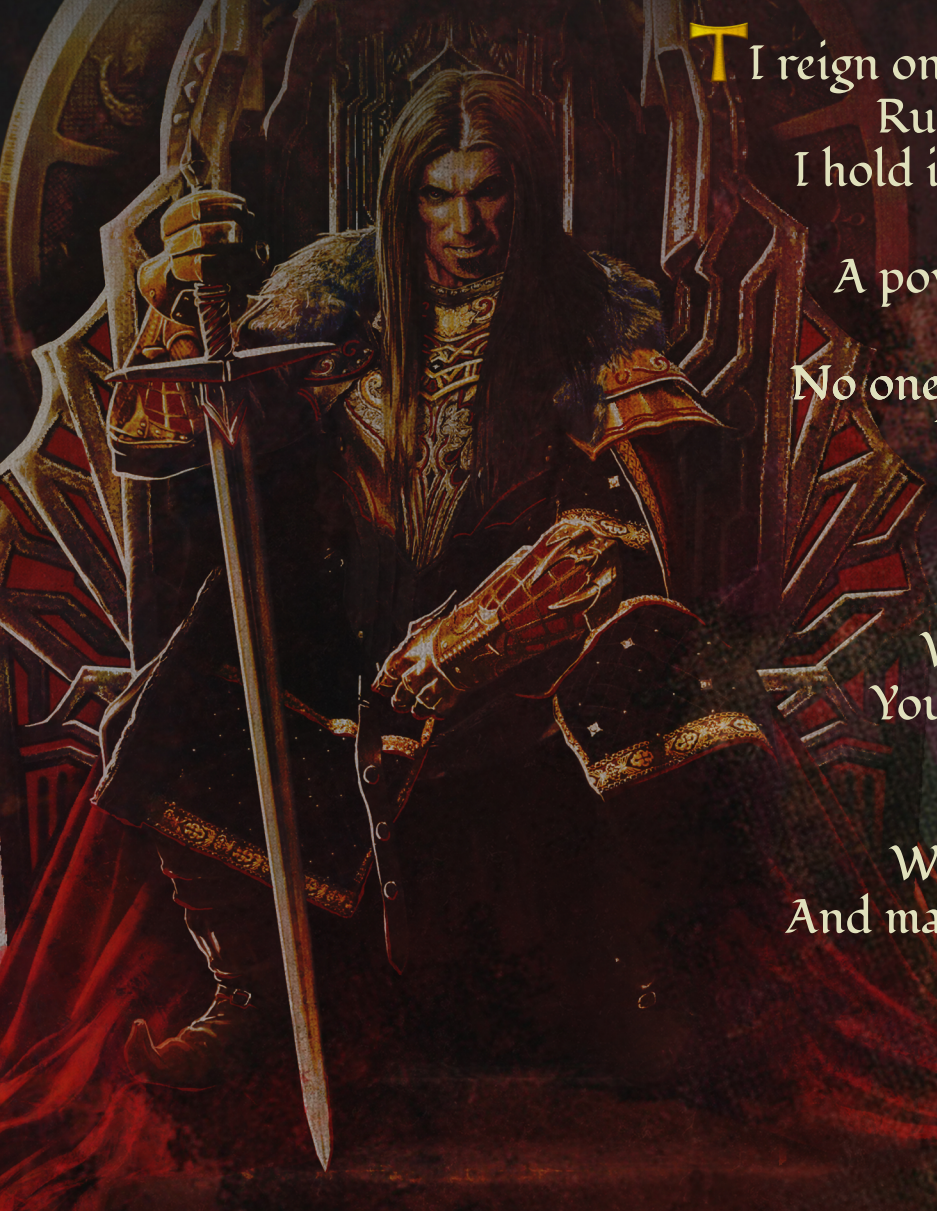
The Tyrant must bent the knee
Oh Brothers, follow me !
Let's reach out for the light
As rebellion is calling

2. Crimson Tyranny

Crimson ! Tyranny !
Crimson ! Tyranny !

For the glory
For salvation
We'll fight until you fall
You crimson king of Avaland
For the glory
For salvation
We'll fight under black sky
And make the stars shine bright again

Visions in my mind
The crystal never lies
The Tyransson will fall
By his blazing pyre



Crimson ! Tyranny !
Crimson ! Tyranny !

Wisdom leave this place
The fools are on the throne
How could the future go
Without a ray of sun ?

For the glory
For salvation
You crimson king of Avaland
For the glory
For salvation
We'll fight under black sky
And make the stars shine bright again

I reign on this world
Running on wicked grounds
I hold in my claws
The keys of misery
A powerful king
Master of destruction
No one defeats me
Blindness leads to ruin

For the glory
For salvation
We'll fight until you fall
You crimson king of Avaland
For the glory
For salvation
We'll fight under black sky
And make the stars shine bright again

Crimson ! Tyranny !
Crimson ! Tyranny !

3. Insurrection

We are the actors
Of a foolish comedy
And we are weary
Of those disasters
Let's be the writers
Of a brand new story
We'll be survivors
Of this tragedy

A revolution
Is about to begin
One solution
We have to win
We are the people
And we are angry
Bring back the fancy
Our revival

To the water, the fire, and the air
To the moon and the earth we pray
For the light, the pride, the sun
It's time for resurrection

We are the mind of the rebellion
A brand new paragon
We draw the sign of our brotherhood
And may run a red flood
Then it comes the insurrection!

We want to find out
The blue of the sky
The joy in our eyes
Our songs and our shouts
From those dark ages
To the golden dawn
We'll turn the pages
And write new lines

Light up the forge
Sharpen your magic
And by your sword
Face all the risks
In a few days
By a moonless night
We'll take back our rights
We'll take up arms

To the water, the fire, and the air
To the moon and the earth we pray
For the light, the pride, the sun
It's time for resurrection

We are the mind of the rebellion
A brand new paragon
Then it comes the insurrection!

We are the actors
Of a foolish comedy
And by your sword

To the water, the fire, and the air
To the moon and the earth we pray
For the light, the pride, the sun
It's time for resurrection

We are the mind of the rebellion

And may run a red flood

Then it comes the insurrection!

4. To Be The King

Prepare the war, to win some peace
Without saying a word
A weapon of steel to bring the justice
Forging my sword

We can't stand more insanity
The fool who reigns and his vanity
The people is hungry and full of wrath
Raise your blade and show us the path

Fight now !
To be the king of this magical Kingdom
Fight now !
To defeat the tyrant on the throne
Fight now !
With your blade, with your wisdom and your heart
For the honor for the land
For the pride and for the light
I'll show how bravely I fight
To be the king of Avaland !

Do you know the weight of a crown ?
Of such a heavy burden
They betray my laws, bringing us down
Soiling my reputation

We can't stand more lowness
The royalty and its excess
We are tired of this masquerade
Lead the revolt by your blade

Fight now !
To be the king of this magical Kingdom
Fight now !
To defeat the tyrant on the throne
Fight now !
With your blade, with your wisdom and your heart
To be the king of Avaland !

5. Secret Night

As the moon is calling
Lovers in its light
To write forbidden passions
With the ink of the heart
The shiver of the secret
The elation of love
A shelter from solitude
In this realm of trouble

The stars are shining bright
In the dreamy pupils
Nymphs in the roses
Are revealed to the night
Branches of mistletoe
Envelop a jewel
Precious flame of love

In the veil of the moon
An impossible love
A queen and a sorcerer
Sharing a romance
In the mist of midnight
Two shadows interlaced
Holding each other
Frightened by the pyre

A tyrant king
And a forgotten queen
For Hellenic tragedy
this wicked prophecy
Always into danger
always into pain
Instead of a safe life
An eternal Love

And the night hold the secret ...

Away from prying eyes
The soulmates unify
Petrifying time
Just by a kiss
The exciting passion
Of an early love
Wishing for the dawn
To never come again

Living a dream
Into reality
The swelling need
Of this addictive magic
The roses leave their thorns
Opening quietly
Singing in silence
The eternal song of love

And the night hold the secret !

6. Kingslayer

I did it, I killed him, and now? ...

My eyes wide open
Can't breathe anymore
Out of sight, forever
What we all waited for

The Tyrant on his knees
And darkness fades to light
We'll finally rise
Your blade, her deadly kiss
You made it right
His blood flows in your mind

I don't wanna be, Kinslayer !
A Hero, A Knight Sorcerer
Are you be Kinslayer ?
Defeated the cursed with bravour

My feat soiled my soul
Magic has a cost
You freed us from a fool
The past belongs to ghosts

I've betrayed my principles
Did we need such a violence?
(It doesn't make sense)
You have made the lesser evil
You'd better relief your conscience

I don't wanna be, Kinslayer !
You will gonna be Kinslayer !
Defeated the cursed with bravour

7. The Gift

On the horizon
Someone is coming
On the end of his run
How long has he been walking ?

The journey was long
From the land I belong
I fled the disease
The war and the misery

Who are you Stranger ?
Where do you come from ?
You might be tired
So far from your home

I'm travelling with a magic item
And I am searching a place to hide my gem
It's protecting, banishes the mist
And I'm offering to you this gift

See our zenith
Only clouds hide the sun
We're stuck in the mist
Despite the fall of the Tyrant

I've covered many paths some treasures in my bags
Made from the burning sand
Full of the magic of my land

Stay and rest, Stranger
Here you are welcome
You've find your shelter
So far from your home

You're travelling with a magic item
You can stop searching a place to hide your gem
It's protecting vanishes the mist
And we are greeting your special gift

I'm travelling - Here you are welcome
And I am searching - far from your home
The gem is protecting - Banishes the mist

And I'm offering
To you this gift

You're travelling with a magic item
You can stop searching a place to hide your gem

Oh ! What a good omen !

8. Out Of The Fog

So many years under a grey sky
So many nights and days confused
Praying the Gods and the Time
To chase away the everlasting wound

All emotions, every soul
Mother Nature and Mother Death
White wisdom and darker fools
Merging to bring a rebirth

But now a jewel, up in the tower - A shiny guiding star
A precious flower plenty of power - Healing every scar
We proudly await a brand-new reign - A reign of harmony
Let's see a miracle, let's live again!!! - Free for eternity!

Open your eyes and discover new skies
An azure legacy
Now we see beyond the fog
For Avaland, we are taking in hand
The quill of destiny
As we leave out of the fog

Destiny turned against all odds
The unexpected has arrived
The Seven magics, the seven gods
Raised back the altar of Life

Black clouds are flying away,
Blue light breaks through the mist
Oh we have fought, we have prayed
Now united we can rise up our fists

But now a jewel up in the tower - A shiny guiding star
A precious flower plenty of power - Healing every scar
We proudly await a brand-new reign - A reign of harmony
Let's see a miracle, let's live again! - Free for eternity!

Open your eyes and discover new skies
An azure legacy
Now we see beyond the fog
For Avaland, we are taking in hand
The quill of destiny
As we leave out of the fog

9. Betrayers

The cowards gonna pay
The ignorants will know
That revolution as led us to the light
The head of a queen
Wife of an insane king
To memorise where's the good and who's the beast

This gory throne of power
Brought you to the glory
Only increased fool thoughts in your mind
Blinded by hate
Sowing the seeds of discord
Tyranny has given way to the terror

An utopian dream
Is turning to nightmare
The wicked angels
Cry tears of ashes

They lead us to disgrace
The ghosts of the past
They reign with hate on Avaland
Unfair Betrayers
Peace needs a sacrifice
An ailing daydream
They hunt the witch in Avaland

Rise up the stake
and be ready to sight
A purgatory of a thousand flames
The career of a man
On his way of triumph
Must be paid by the blood of enemies

You write a deadly legend
Full of gruesome pages
Your tale begins in a wounded land
You think you're the brightest
Burning down a queen
Sacrilege ! you'll kill a Sorceress

An utopian dream
Is turning to nightmare
The wicked angels
Cry tears of ashes

They lead us to disgrace
The ghosts of the past
They reign with hate on Avaland
Unfair Betrayers
Peace needs a sacrifice
An ailing daydream
They hunt the witch in Avaland
Unfair Betrayers

10. Madness Of The Wise

They betrayed the statements
Fool leaders they stay
They stole me my love
Consume her by the flames

They call this a king
Only won a jester
Let's give them a present
My deadly revenge

The sky falls obsidian as hope fades away
Madness is taking my master
The wise turns to mad and the light turns to dark
I just cannot let the balance collapse

Scheming Shadows
Whispering a wicked mass
And gloomy faces
Light up the stake of the damned

They call me a fool
I'm the righter of wrong
Embrace the chaos
The crystal never lies !

The sky falls obsidian as hope fades away
The wise turns to mad and the light turns to dark
I just cannot let the balance collapse

Defy me young fool

The sky's obsidian as hope faded away
But Madness is gone forever
The wise turns to dust and the child turns to man
The eternal keeper of the balance

11. You'll Be The Legend

Here we stand now, facing our legacy
I've just postponed the term
The rose is accursed,
Time becomes our enemy
We're witnesses of our destiny

I'm not a hero at all
If we change the past, we will fall
Shadows will make us thrall
We'll forge ahead straight in a wall

This bears out the prophecy
We're damned for eternity

An insane peace never last
Defying the gods
We'll brake our final odds
Now the die is cast

I don't wanna be a savior
I am your reason, not only power
I'll be your conscience, not your might

I'm not a hero at all
If we change the past, we will fall
Destroy the balance, erasing hope

You'll bring us down ...

... Down to hell

You sorcerer, as young as talented
Overcame the darkness and the unkind
We, together, could change our history
Flow your spells in everybody's mind
You'll be the legend my friend
You'll be the guide, you'll be my hand
You'll be the savior my friend
Lead us to a better end

You'll be the legend my friend
You'll be the guide, you'll be my hand

Little lies have never breed
The end of the world
We just need some sorcery
To foil the evil (forces)

You'll be the legend my friend
You'll be the guide, you'll be my hand
Our light into the night

You are a legend my friend
You are the guide, you are my hand
Our light into the night

That's an order !

I am the king !

12. Lies

I believe in a better world
In another time
Without any lie
We'll leave this crimson land
For a paradise,
A wicked disguise
I know we'll be cursed forever
In this great unknown
In this great unreal
We leave this Avaland
For a brand new one,
Only built on lies

On Lies !

Use the force in your heart
With the Gypsum Flower
Let your imagination
Create a land of second chance

Why do I have to Obey a liar
Which duty I've to chose
The Sorcery or The Majesty

Don't worry my love
I'll keep a part of us
He will be a Wilstorm
He will be our destiny

Lies sometimes ain't evil
Lies sometimes are the answer

We'll go on this road
Our future world
I will be your guide
Flying us to the pride
Trust in the power
Of the sorcerer
Follow The Phenix
Flying us in a rebirth!

Got a power in my hands
As a force as a weakness
It's so hard to define
What is wrong and what is right

You are the future
Fate in calling
The gods are on your side
It's only a change not an erasure

I'm worry, my love
Will we meet again ?
How could a Wilstorm
Like me, be so damed

Lies sometimes ain't evil

We'll go on this road
Our future world
I will be your guide
Flying us to the pride
Trust in the power
Follow The Phenix
Flying us in a rebirth!

12. Lies

We enter a brave new world
In another time
In another light
I know we are cursed forever
In this great unknown
In this great unreal
We leave a wasted land
For this brand new one,
Only built on lies

On Lies !

I feel the wind in it sigh
At the point of no return
We have to keep hidden
The secret of those lies

Don't worry my love
I'll keep a part of us
He will be a Wilstorm
He will be our destiny
Lies sometimes ain't evil

We'll go on this road
Our future world
I will be your guide
Flying us to the pride
Trust in the power
Follow The Phenix
Flying us in a rebirth!

Weave the lines of time
Into lies
Lead us to this brand new world
By your words

MAGICAE TEMPORIS CIRCULUS
