THEATER OF SORCERY

☯ There was a time a prophecy was told
A story of magic, love and epic
A storyteller who was seen as a fool
Painted the lines of infinity

In our kingdom, mysterious Avaland
I follow my will, my destiny
Hurting my beloved, going across my way
Unleashing the storm and the light

♀ Here you come into the fabulous place of Avaland
Just take your sit and watch the actors play

☯ Open your eyes
Release the magic
Look At the sky
And follow the phoenix
Now you're on the road...
...to the Theater Of Sorcery!

Crossing the valleys, crossing the seas
In a land of the dead
The call of the past
Ring through my head

♀ Here you come into the fabulous place of Avaland
Just take your sit and watch the actors play

☯ Open your eyes
Release the magic
Look At the sky
And follow the phoenix
Now you're on the road...
...to the Theater Of Sorcery!

2. GYPSUM FLOWER

☞ From the crypt arising secretly
Darkness is scattering in my kingdom
Since eternity, the light is fading away
And they wait for their freedom

☯ Since I'm alive, and a long time before
All the legends mean a devilish spell
Obsidian sky will soon collapse
Swallowing the sun and bringer of hell

♀ I feel a discord
Into the balance
Darkness arises, demons are coming from...
From an accursed artefact

☞ Can you feel the power of this mystic stone
Attracting death on our precious jewel
Our souls intended to live on ruins
And Avaland will fall apart

♀ I can feel the poison from this magic stone
Flowing in my mind and corrupting my thoughts
My magic's drying up with the chain of day
We have to strike evil from the Gypsum Flower

♀ Brought in the past from the golden Sands
A malediction swept this mystic gem
My ancestor, the Storyteller
Used his magic to fight the curse

☞ Discord is growing
Into the kingdom
Darkness arises, demons are coming from...
From an accursed artefact

2. GYPSUM FLOWER

♀ Can you feel the power of this mystic stone
Attracting death on our precious jewel
Our souls intended to live on ruins
And Avaland will fall apart

☯ I can feel the poison from this magic stone
Flowing in my mind and corrupting my thoughts
My magic's growing up with the chain of day
We have to strike evil from the Gypsum Flower

✿ Something strong is waking up in me
When the wind blows sparkles born between my fingers

♣ Chaos now appears around us
Shadows answer to the power of the Gypsum Flower

✿ The force gets stronger in me as a feeling of magic Maybe not a wicked curse, but a gift from the sky

☯ It seems like the wind obey me, may I can help in this fight

♀ I feel a discord ... Discord is growing ♣
Into the balance ... Into the kingdom
Darkness arises, demons are coming from...
From an accursed artefact

♀ Can you feel the power of this mystic stone
Attracting death on our precious jewel
Our souls intended to live on ruins
And Avaland will fall apart

☯ I can feel the poison from this magic stone
Flowing in my mind and corrupting my thoughts
My magic's growing up with the chain of day
We have to strike evil from the Gypsum Flower

3. Let The Wind Blow

 The wind is blowing in the valley
My hairs are stretching on my skin
Lightnings are dancing in my eyes
My tears are rain, I'm afraid of me

 A strong power's running through your veins
And your heart's beating, love fulfils your soul
The light is coming back again
After the storm comes the quietness

 Raise your fist and call the storm my friend
But I can't control this energy
 The wind goes wild, it's calling you my friend
The hurricane will be too strong for me

  I'm afraid of me, afraid of my gift
  Unleash the force, you'd better let the wind blow
  I'm afraid of me, afraid of what I can make
Release the storm, you'd better let the wind blow

 You'd better let the wind blow through your mind
You'd better let the wind blow through your soul

 You're pure and a brave soul
You know how to do your best
We'll stand together my friend
Forever we're brothers in arms

Breathing deeply, exhale the clouds
The heart beating to the thunder
A tornado's blowing in my head
I'm storm-minded afraid of my gift

 Close your eyes and call the storm my love
I hear it whispers in my ears
 Unchain the wind, it's calling you my love
But if I hurt an innocent?

//Chorus//

 I don't want to let it go!
 Unleash the force, you'd better let the wind blow
I don't want to let it blow!
Release the storm, you'd better let the wind blow

//Chorus//

4. STORYTELLER

☯ A hurricane was just about
To ruin down on my life
Can someone help me heal from this harm

☯ I'm the one who goes through time
Trusting in my crystal ball
I see the future and the surprises it reveals

Living in a world of our own,
We won't trust the fools who tell
The stories of the past, the legends of our history
Living in a time of own
The wind opposes all divination,
The prophecies have warned us
But no one wants to hear what awaits us!

☯ The storyteller said and no-one trusted!
The storyteller said and no-one trusted!

Searching for a great answer
Reading all the old scrolls
I hope to see my name in the legends

☯ Is the world wise with its fool,
Trusting only what is real?
All those dreams and visions
Will they ever come to life?

Living in a world of our own,
We won't trust the fools who tell
The stories of the past, the legends of our history
Living in a time of own
The wind opposes all divination,
The prophecies have warned us
But no one wants to hear what awaits us!

☯ The storyteller said and no-one trusted!
The storyteller said and no-one trusted!

5. ESCAPE TO PARADISE

I'll tell you a story of a fallen king
Who abused of all his wealth
My land became wastelands
I could only leave this place

All my gold as become lead
And, Oh my god ! what the hell I did?!
I would like to start all over again
In the most beautiful world.

I've been searching for too long now
The perfect utopia
And I'd sell my soul to the devil
Yeah I lost my mind in this quest, all alone...

And I believe in a land of forgiveness
And where the sun can shine again
Escape from a land of misery
I'm going to paradise

I leave my people and my kingdom
In misery and oblivion
But the selfish I am
Wants to build it again

I follow the stars in which I trust
The fool I am believe their lies
I often heard the name of Eldorado
The dreamer I am still looking for.

And I've been travelling for too long now
On fuckin' wicked ways I walk
And I am game to anything
To find this holy shit of paradise

And I believe in a land of forgiveness
And where the sun can shine again
Escape from a land of misery
I'm going to paradise

...

6. HOLY KINGDOM OF FOOLS

✂ There was a place seen as a perfect world
Where all the people will be the same
No different ideas and no different thoughts
And they call this Utopia...

It's forgiven to cry, to scream and to shout ☹
All emotions have left this land
The first who go through is changed into a clone
Another sheep corrupted by dictates

✂ I don't believe in the lies they say
But you've been trapped by the gold they promised you! ☹

☹ Now, the way you're going ✂
The way you're walking
And the way you fight
Just now you're part
Of this holy kingdom of fools
Now the way you're talking
The way you're thinking
And the way you die
Just now you're part
of this holy kingdom of fools!

✂ Open your eyes ... and come back in the real world ☹
Where life is full of surprises
You're not purified ... neither the one I knew ✂
☹ You're just what I call "another sheep"

You're forbidden to cry, to scream and to shout
All emotions have left your eyes
✂ You say I'm a freak, and maybe you're right
But my brothers and I will never die!

✂ I don't believe in the lies you say
And I'll never be trapped by the gold you promised me! ☹

//Chorus//

7. Never Let Me Walk Alone

Silently walking through the fields
Everyday I hope
Someone join me on my road

Young boy in your loneliness
I heard your call
I'll be by your side on this road

Never asked for anything
From the gods and spirits
So why my hands
Can release lightnings

This talent isn't evil
It strikes shadows away
Believe in your heart
And forget bad days of the past

In my dreams there's no storm or rain
And my wild power never exists at all
In the ancient prophecies
If you don't keep going only darkness will stand
Forever!

Using my power failing all my spells
I'm just a freak
Please, never let me walk alone
You've got the power to release us all
Your journey is long
I will never let you walk alone

Never let me walk alone
I will never let you walk alone

Why the storm is growling
When my blood's running fast
I can't stop this feeling
Of rage increased in my heart

Release what you feel
Spread out your broken wings
And like a phoenix
Reborn from your ashes

In my dreams there's no storm or rain
And my wild power never exists at all
In the ancient prophecies
If you don't keep going only darkness will stand
Forever!

//Chorus//

Silently walking through the fields
Everyday I hope
The rain will bring a revival
Young boy in your distress
I heard your call
I'll be by your side in this quest

In my dreams there's no storm or rain
And my wild power never exists at all
In the ancient prophecies
If you don't keep going only darkness will stand
Forever!

//Chorus//

8. DEJA-VU

☯ Great Master here I come to you
Lost and empty soul
I'm a danger for the others
Searching for a shelter and a guide

Young boy if you came to me ♀
It's because of your destiny
Be ready for a great challenge
I will make a man of you, strong, proud and wise, oh

☯ A hope appears now in my eyes
I want to learn to be a sorcerer !

Ancient memories are running in my mind ♀
Like rising from the past
Son, I feel like a Deja-vu !
You want to learn about the magic in your hands
You'll be my apprentice
And I feel like a deja-vu
And I feel like a deja-vu

Madness? is my mind going wild?
For sure I read what we're living
An old prophecy about destruction
Our fate in your hands

☯ I'll attend your slightest movement
Teach me how to be a sorcerer !

Ancient memories are running in my mind ♀
Like rising from the past
Son, I feel like a Deja-vu !
You want to learn about the magic in your hands
You'll be my apprentice
And I feel like a deja-vu
And I feel like a deja-vu

9. I'LL BE READY FOR YOUR LOVE

☾ Lost in the cold and moonless night watching the stars in the obsidian sky
Asking myself for who I am
Whithout you, I'm just nothing on this world

Lost in my mind and memories
Searching for you among the stars
I close my eyes, see you next to me
Feelin' your touch on my skin

Soon I'll be there for you

When I'll be free from my fails
When I'll be free from my pain
When I'll be free from my rage
I'll be ready for your love

Can only see me as a freak
How could I hurt the one I love
Lost in space and lost in time
Wandering why to the sky

Soon I'll be there with you

When I'll be free from my fails
When I'll be free from my pain
When I'll be free from my rage
I'll be ready for your love

★ Each and every night I dream
Of you and me my love
Your wings around me, protecting me
Each and every night I cry
Do I deserve your love
But those tears are so healing

☾ Days are going by and I wait ★
I'm waiting for you to be with me
You're the fullmoon in my darkest nights
I just want to hold you in my arms

☾ When I'll be free from my fails
When I'll be free from my pain
When I'll be free from my rage
I'll be ready for your love

★ Each and every night I dream
Of you and me my love
Your wings around me, protecting me
Each and every night I cry
Do I deserve your love
But those tears are so healing

10. War Of Minds

✿ I'm the bad beast inside your head
The chaos in your mind
Demon of your mankind
Turn your vision to red

☾ Your torments and your injuries
Are still freaking your mind
Look deep into your heart
And turn them into your force

✿ Let your craving for power
Makes your wisdom fade away
Don't fall into this masquerade
And listen to what your heart is made

☾ My head is about to explode
And I'm lost in this war of mind

✿ You'll dive into insanity,
Ready for the ride
Boy I have by my side
A place in Hell with me, oh oh

☾ All your demons are weak
Only using of your anger
Learn about the lessons of the past
Don't let it consume your being

✿ Let your craving for power
Makes your wisdom fade away
Don't fall into this masquerade
And listen to what your heart is made

☾ My head is about to explode
I'm lost in this war of mind

II. Rise From The Ashes

☯ I'm going across this road again
But I'm back in my home this time
Got my answers and peace of mind
Like the phoenix I rise and bring the light

Back in my homeland I'm feelin' ✨
Like a wind of change blowing as I breathe
Know my power and my values
Let's fall a healing rain on the sorrows of the past

☯ I just cannot wait for anymore
To see the dark sky disperse
The divine one speaking cannot lie ☯
The mystic prophecy will come true

☯ I'll rise from the ashes! ✨
I'll rise from the ashes!
I'll rise from the ashes!

★ Waiting for my wishes to complete
I'm feeling strange like magic in my soul
I'll leave the kingdom of fools ✨
Hitting the road back to Avaland

♀ Release the power of the wildest storm let's finish with this evil spell
With a hero and willpower 🛡️
Like the phoenix we'll reborn tomorrow !

☯ I just cannot wait for anymore
To see the dark sky disperse
The divine one speaking cannot lie ☯
The mystic prophecy will come true

We'll rise from the ashes!
We'll rise from the ashes!
We'll rise from the ashes!
